Classified Advertising

The term "Classified Advertising" does not by any means include just "Help Wanted" and "Lost and Found" ads.

Classified Advertising is a perfectly legitimate means of advertising that brings certain returns. Its cost is small and it yields a high percentage of profit on the amount expended.

Classified Advertising brings your name constantly before the public—it reaches just the people you want to reach and it reaches them when they are in a most receptive mood.

Classified Advertising affords the same advantage as all newspaper advertising—extensive circulation and its low cost enables you to employ frequent insertions.

Money invested in terse, well-worded classified ads is money well spent.
